INFANT'S BODY FOUND.

Early last night a young colore woman named Carrie Evans had occasion to enter the cellar of a house or King street, near Commerce. According to her statement, in descending the steps she slipped and in attempting to take hold of something to keep from falling her hand came in contact with a box which she pulled over on its side. She was terrified when she found the She was terrified when she found the hody of a dead white female infant in the box, and proceeding to the street she notified the police. The remains were taken from the cellar when they were found to be wrapped in towels. The body was attired in one garment—a shirt—which had belonged to an adult. The dead infant was conveyed to Demaine & Son's undertaking establishment and & Son's undertaking establishment and Dr Mocre, the Coroner, notified. This Dr. Mocre, the Coroner, notified. This morning the following jury was summoned to hold an inquest: E. Warfield, jr., (foreman), F. C. Oreighton, J. E. Timberman, Thos. A. Fisher, F. C. Spinks, jr., and J. F. Buckley. The dead infant appeared to have been four or five days old, and after listening to all the evidence and examining the remains, the jury returned the following verdict:

"We, the jury, find the said infant came to its death by means unknown to the jury.'

PRETTY DANCE.

The prettiest dance of the season was the Christmas german given last night at the Christmas german given has angul at McBurney's Hall, by the Alexandria German Club. The hall was beautifully decorated with palms, green garlands and red Christmas bells, &c. The music was delightful, and the dancing was least up till a late hour. The german kept up till a late hour. The german was led by Mr. Harry Beverley with Miss May Snowden, and a number of new figures were introduced. The favors were beautiful and during an intermiswere beautiful and during an intermis-sion a delicious supper was served. The chaperons were Mrs. C. F. Lee, Mrs. G. A. Mushbach, Mrs. George Ubler, Mrs. A. D. Brockett, Mrs. Frances Dan-enhower, Mrs. J. Sidney Douglas, Mrs. Louis Scott and Mrs. G. H. Robinson. Louis Scott and Mrs. G. H. BOOK OF RULES READ.

The members of the police force of this city were summoned before Chief Goods yesterday afternoon when the book of rules governing the workings of the force was read to them. The chief placed special emphasis on certain rules, which, it is alleged, have been frequently violated by officers. The policemen were teld that they will hereafter be compelled to strictly live up to the rules and regulations or be reported to the police commissioners. The chief's section was in pursuance of orders from the commissioners, who, on Wednesday night last, instructed the chief to see that the officers comply with
